

All Alone in the World: Children of the Incarcerated

In this moving condemnation of the U.S. penal system and its effect on families (Parents Press), award-winning journalist Nell Bernstein takes an intimate look at parents and children over two million of them torn apart by our current incarceration policy. Described as meticulously reported and sensitively written by Salon, the book is brimming with compelling case studies ... and recommendations for change (Orlando Sentinel); Our Weekly Los Angeles calls it a must-read for lawmakers as well as for lawbreakers.
