

Ruined Castles and Phantom Memories in Southern France: The Lost and Majestic Monument of the Cathar Movement

Ruined Castles and Phantom Memories is a pictorial edition of artist Marques Vickers photography featuring the remnants and remains of several Middle Age castles in southern France within the Languedoc region. Each image frames the ruined monuments and elevated structures of 12th century France occupied by members of the once vibrant Cathar movement. Desolate and foreboding, these staggering monoliths bear the sole testimony of the Cathar race, effectively exterminated in the 14th century by the Catholic Church during the Albigensian Crusades. The finely crafted masonry and vaulted remaining pillars cast expansive shadows across the soaring landscape. Time brakes to a halt enabling the viewer to understand the allure of simplistic elegance and majesty. The principal fortresses photographed include the Cathar Castles of Peyrepertuse, Queribus and Chateau de Thermes and the Abbey of Saint Hilary. Vickers poetry accompanies this memorable survey, which visually examines the ravages of time, warfare and neglect.
