

Samba: Resistance in Motion (Arts and Politics of the Everyday)

Barbara Browning combines a lyrical, personal narrative with incisive theoretical accounts of Brazilian dance cultures. While she brings ethnographic, historiographic, and musicological scholarship to bear on her subject, Browning writes as a dancer, fully engaged in the dance cultures of Brazil and of Brazilian exile communities in the U.S.

Performance studies encounters history differently than art historical or linear or psyche (see Barbara Browning, Samba Resistance in Motion: Arts, Politics of the Everyday, 1995 Peggy Phelan, Mourning Sex: Performing Public Memories, SAMBA: RESISTANCE IN MOTION by Barbara Browning.
